

Services

Comprehensive legal and government relations services.

Empire is dedicated to guiding clients through an intricate government structure in order to achieve their business goals. Our team has extensive experience working with regional, city, state, and local government officials and leaders of government agencies. Our energy and communication back to our clients is unprecedented and clearly differentiates Empire from others.

Specifically, Empire:

- Creates strategies to deal with your legislative issues.
- Keeps you informed on the status of legislation that may impact your business.
- Reaches out to key elected officials and agency leaders to educate them on issues that affect you.
- Organizes campaigns and coalitions to meet your corporate goals.
- Provides business procurement services to those organizations seeking to do business with the government.
